former NHL goalie Al Rollins still kicking them out at 39, rolled past the defending champion Sherbrooke Beavers in six games in the best-of-seven Allan Cup final. The Beavers actually led 2-1 but the Miners came on to take three straight for the title.

The Miners, coached by Roy Kelly, were a crew of old men with seemingly young legs and proved too powerful for the Eastern titleholders. Old pros like Rollins, 39, Sid Finney, 37, and Bob Solinger, 40, were among the team mainstays in the cup finals.

The junior Oil Kings were equally as proficient as the Miners in winning the Memorial Cup from the highly-touted Oshawa Generals in six games.

Edmonton coach Ray Kinasewich guided the Oil Kings to their second Memorial Cup in four years.
